

Laing O'Rourke Australia Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan

October 2019 – October 2021

LAING O'ROURKE

Acknowledgement

'Laing O'Rourke acknowledges Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples as the Traditional Custodians and First Nations Peoples of Australia. We pay our respects to their ancestors and Elders, both past, present and emerging and thank them for enriching our nation with their cultural practices, traditions, lore and connection to Country. We also acknowledge Reconciliation Australia and the important work it does to promote respect, trust and positive relationships between the wider Australian community and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.'

Burbuga Mura – 'Rising Path'

This tells the story of Laing O'Rourke Australia's 40-year journey and celebrates the unique culture of our Nation's First Peoples, paying respect to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples Past, Present and Future.

The mural uses traditional symbolism set against a backdrop of country to tell our collective story:

- The pathway throughout represents our journey
- Symbols along the path represent Elders, families and children and the strong connection to family Laing O'Rourke Australia and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people share
- 40 matching charcoal building blocks depict each year since O'Rourke and Sons began operation, interweaving blocks reflecting excellence in engineering and innovation
- The gathering circle with interweaving people in red charcoal and yellow visually represents our people. We are one team at the heart of the business
- Blue water imagery represents Laing O'Rourke's journey across the seas to Sydney Harbour and the connection between our Australian and European hubs.

The original piece at our North Sydney office also features a traditional welcome to all in an irregular form reflective of the lakes, rivers and mountains that form the natural boundaries of each tribal groups' country.

The mural reflects Laing O'Rourke Australia's commitment to advancing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, businesses and communities through the three values of reconciliation – relationships, respect and opportunities.

Message from Laing O'Rourke

At Laing O'Rourke Australia we accept the challenges and opportunities of Reconciliation and work required. Our Reconciliation Action Plan is evidence of that.

Innovation and excellence are central to everything we do. It is this commitment that sets us apart, making Laing O'Rourke an industry leader. Our Reconciliation Action Plan reflects this commitment.

We want to employ and train more Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in our workforce. We want more Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander businesses in our supply chain. This Reconciliation Action Plan will help us do that.

I am proud that we came together as one team to develop this Plan. Ideas came from across the business – generating practical, achievable actions that will integrate with the way we work.

Our people told us that they want to do more but they needed better direction. The RAP provides this direction. It will help build the confidence of our people in working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, businesses and communities.

I want to thank Maree for her leadership and all involved in developing this Plan.

We have already done a lot and together we can do more to deliver our Reconciliation Action Plan.

Cathal O'Rourke
Managing Director,
Laing O'Rourke Australia

As a proud Yawuru, Karajarri and Torres Strait Islander woman, I am passionate about positively representing my culture and community in everything that I do.

As Indigenous Affairs Lead at Laing O'Rourke, I want to ensure Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander voices are elevated and respected throughout our business to better influence and inform the responsible decisions we make.

With strong support and a genuine commitment from our Leaders this RAP is an opportunity for Laing O'Rourke to apply our innovation and excellence to the advancement of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities with whom we work – through employment, through our supply chain and through meaningful strategic partnerships.

I'm proud of the work we've done to date and excited about continuing to raise the standard of Reconciliation across our industry for all Australians.

Maree Ansey
Indigenous Affairs Lead,
Laing O'Rourke Australia

CREATING LEADERS

HENRY MULLETT

– Night Shift Supervisor on the Darlington Upgrade Project

Henry is a proud Gunaikurnai man from East Gippsland Victoria

"My first job out of school was concreting. The construction industry has been a great way to develop a career. I want to further diversify my experience and grow as a supervisor."

"From what I have experienced here at Laing O'Rourke there are few limits to what you can achieve with hard work and experience and I'm excited about where I can go within the organisation."

"We have great people in the business. I want to keep learning from their experiences."

Message from Reconciliation Australia

On behalf of Reconciliation Australia, I am delighted to see Laing O'Rourke continue its reconciliation journey with the launch of its third RAP.

Through the development of an Innovate RAP, Laing O'Rourke continues to play an important part in a community of over 1,000 dedicated corporate, government, and not-for-profit organisations that have formally committed to reconciliation through the RAP program since its inception in 2006.

This Innovate RAP provides Laing O'Rourke with the key steps to establish its own unique approach to reconciliation. Through implementing an Innovate RAP, Laing O'Rourke will strengthen its approach to driving reconciliation through its business activities, services and programs, and develop mutually beneficial relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander stakeholders.

We encourage Laing O'Rourke to embrace this journey with open hearts and minds, to grow from the challenges, and to build on its successes.

I look forward to following its ongoing reconciliation journey.

Karen Mundine
Chief Executive Officer
Reconciliation Australia

Our vision for reconciliation

To value, include and respect Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander voices so they are heard and better inform the decisions made across our business.

To bring our commitment to innovation and excellence to building genuine relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples which further support economic development, sustainability and independence for all communities.

Our Commitment

Our commitment to working for the advancement of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples is embedded into our business processes and that our teams are held accountable.

The Reconciliation Action Plan was developed by people from across our business in alignment with our Company Mission and Guiding Principles. Ensuring each business unit has been involved in its design.

It has been endorsed by our Board and Executive Directors. The Australian Hub Executive Diversity Council will govern and oversee the implementation of the plan.

The Reconciliation Action Plan works with the suite of company policies to guide the way Laing O'Rourke connects and works with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander businesses and communities including the:

- Laing O'Rourke Indigenous Participation Policy
- Laing O'Rourke Indigenous Participation Statement
- Laing O'Rourke Indigenous Procurement Policy.

Our Business

Laing O'Rourke is a global engineering enterprise with 50 years of involvement in Australian construction and infrastructure including more than a decade under the Laing O'Rourke banner.

The business is currently delivering some of Australia's most exciting projects across the transport, building construction, defence, airports, mining, civil and social infrastructure sectors.

Laing O'Rourke operates through two major geographical hubs;

- Europe Hub which covers the United Kingdom and United Arab Emirates
- Australia Hub which covers Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong

Across Australia Laing O'Rourke has offices located in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth and the Hunter Valley as well as projects based in regional and remote Australia including the Northern Territory, the Pilbara Region and Central Queensland. Laing O'Rourke is also an advocate for working flexibly and therefore support its staff in a range of flexible work patterns which are tailored to an individual's needs and aligned to their current work environment.

Laing O'Rourke – which has been recognised three times on the AFR's Most Innovative Australian Companies index - is committed to becoming the recognised leader for innovation and excellence in the construction industry.

We employ 1600 people to deliver our projects, thirty-two people or two per cent of whom identify as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

Our Guiding Principles

OUR 2025 MISSION

To become the recognised leader for innovation and excellence in the construction industry

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Absolute alignment

We work as one team by knowing and understanding our people and their talents to deliver for our customers

Complete thinking

We look at projects in their entirety to ensure we bring together all the parts at the right time and in the right way for the customer and the business

Sophisticated simplicity

We aim to make our complex world feel simple, useable and inspiring

SUPPORTING OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

LUCAS GRIMA

– First recipient of the Laing O'Rourke Indigenous Scholarship

Lucas is a proud Barkinji man originally from Campbelltown and the first recipient of the Laing O'Rourke Indigenous Scholarship at the University of Sydney. He is an intern working on the North Shore Corridor Works, Portion 7 and is currently completing a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) (Mechanical).

His commitment to innovation and excellence has been recognised by the Caltex Best All-Rounder award, 2017 NAIDOC Leadership award, the University of Sydney Indigenous Progress Award and as a finalist in the CSIRO STEM student of the year.

Lucas' first independent project was the removal of a two-tonne noise wall panel in a railway corridor and he was responsible for creating a Navisworks animation for a bridge demolition that was successfully presented to Sydney trains.

His dream is to design and manufacture car engines and one day take up a managerial role.

"Laing O'Rourke stood out to me as an innovative company, backed by an outstanding reputation and 40 years of experience. These qualities served as the perfect combination for a first look into the engineering industry. I figured if I could start with the best, it would be the benchmark for my future employment. I was also attracted to Laing O'Rourke's past works, working on some of the world's most prestigious projects such as 'Atlantis, The Palm' in Dubai."

Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan 2019-21

Laing O'Rourke was the first construction company in Australia to launch a Reconciliation Action Plan in 2011.

We know diversity and inclusion brings strength and aligns with our culture of innovation and excellence.

Relationships and genuine connection are at the centre of how we work. That is why we held a Reconciliation Action Plan Ideation Workshop to ensure our people's views were heard, and to reflect on, reset and re-focus our Indigenous Affairs strategic direction.

The result was our Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan 2019-21 created by our people centred around the principles of:

- Relationships
- Respect
- Opportunities
- Governance.

Our Reconciliation Action Plan, is championed by Laing O'Rourke's Indigenous Affairs Lead, Maree Ansey who will also Chair the RAP Working Group.

CREATING LEADERS

BASILIA MCGAW

– Aboriginal Participation Manager on Central Sydney

Basilias is a proud member of the Malak Malak Tribe & Daly River Clan Darwin NT.

She has worked with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities on economic development. Basilias wanted to bring these skills to help connect corporate Australia to community.

She joined Laing O'Rourke Australia after seeing the passion of our leaders for leaving lasting legacies in community.

"I believed my experience could help achieve these goals. I am inspired by the change I see within the CSM team, I am a proud member of and how they have embraced and celebrate my Culture. I am inspired to see the community engaged and the lasting impression we will leave when the project is complete. My goal was to make Laing O'Rourke Australia an employer of choice for Aboriginal people. I aspire to have a long-term career in our business and want to forever be an influencer of change and connection."

ENGAGING COMMUNITIES

WOOLGOOLGA TO BALLINA PACIFIC HIGHWAY UPGRADE (W2B)

The W2B project involves the duplication of approximately 155 kilometres of road to a four-lane divided road on the Pacific Highway. It runs through local Aboriginal Nations of Gumbaynggir, Yaegl and Bundjalung.

Laing O'Rourke committed to a 1.5% target of the total project spend, and is proud to have exceeded this by investing more than $67 million on Aboriginal participation on the highway upgrade.

The project wanted to ensure that it was creating opportunities in the local community for skilled workers and business owners. Surpassing the targets set under the NSW Government's Aboriginal Participation in Construction program, at the peak of the project 9% of the workforce identified as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island people. Of these, more than a third identified with one or two of the local Aboriginal Nations.

"Personally, for me and the business, this is a massive achievement - to show our own people that you don't have to be anyone exciting or someone with a lot of money, you can get out and have a go."

— James Fonmosa, Bundjalung man and local business owner

Relationships

'We want to create a positive legacy in the communities in which we work' – RAP Working Group

The nature of our industry sees us constantly working 'On Country' as we have projects in various regional, remote and urbanised areas across Australia, whether it be roads, rail or building infrastructure we must always acknowledge and respect that we are on Aboriginal land.

Our relationship and partnerships with Traditional Land Owners are integral to our successful project delivery and will be built on mutual respect and integrity.
